

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene and
The University of Maryland School of Medicine

Youth Co-Occurring Mental Health and Substance Use Disorders Training for Behavioral Health Providers

Free Training Series and CEUs Offered at www.mdbehavioralhealth.com

What is available in this training series:

- ♦ 19 multimedia training modules (may complete individually or as series)
- ♦ Variety of treatment resources
- ♦ Interviews with youth and family members
- ♦ Role play demonstrations
- ♦ Provider Tips
- ♦ And more!

Who should take this training series:

Mental health and substance use providers and counselors interested in increasing their competency in working with youth and young adults with co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CALL OR EMAIL:

Amanda Mosby at (410) 706-2869;
amosby@psych.umaryland.edu

What you will receive:

Free web-based training, support, and tools to support evidence-based practices for co-occurring disorders

Free CEUs for all provider types after completion of each module